GUIDELINES FOR APPLICANTS: MASTER FOREIGN GOING (CLASS 1 DECK OFFICER)

Please note - Calculation of Sea Service:

- A period of sea service is to be reckoned by the calendar month.
- A period of sea service is to be calculated from the date of engagement to the date of discharge from the ship, with both the engagement and discharge days counting as full days.
- Days in excess of full months may be added together and counted towards sea service with 30 days being considered one month, 360 days is considered one year.

For further information refer to Maritime Rule Part 32 Ship's Personnel – Qualifications (32.19). Available on Maritime New Zealand's website - www.maritimenz.govt.nz - under Rules.

In addition to completing an approved course of study and passing a Maritime NZ approved oral exam, to be eligible for the issue of a Certificate of Competency as Master F.G. a person must satisfy the following:

1. Hold a First Mate Foreign Going or Class II Deck Officer Certificate of Competency. Yes No
The acceptability of certificates issued by administrations other than the Maritime NZ will need to be assessed on a case-by-case basis. (A fee might apply for this assessment.)
2. Completed at least 36 months qualifying service in charge of a navigation watch on ships 500 GRT or over, whilst holding a certificate as Second Mate F.G. (Class III Deck Officer) or at least 12 months sea service whilst holding a certificate as First Mate F.G. and sailing in the capacity of First Mate? Yes No

The above must include 18 months sea service on ships operating in the unlimited area since obtaining a Second Mate F.G. Certificate, and have been a person in charge of a navigational watch for not less than 8 hours out of every 24 claimed. If you have not attained the 18 months sea service in the unlimited area you may be eligible for examination as a Class 1 Deck Officer.

If you are uncertain as to whether the nature or duration of your sea service meets the Maritime NZ's requirements, you may contact the Maritime NZ Head Office and seek a formal assessment of your sea time by a Maritime NZ examiner. A fee might apply for this assessment.

If you have answered 'yes' to either question on this page then you may meet the sea service requirements for this particular qualification.

A formal application must be submitted to Maritime NZ along with substantiating evidence to determine eligibility for this qualification. Full details are on the application form that can be downloaded at www.maritimenz.govt.nz.
